was smoked ham, not shoulders. Alexander Memorial Coliseum Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium Omni Turner Field Georgia Dome Oh, and Junior Grill! Is there a thread on the archive? This post was edited by gthawk 3 years agoGrumpy's Wreck Room PJ bash Rip Rock Tunnel Pub Pizza Factory yes, I know.... Few comments: 1) Macy's is owned by Davidson. They kept the name Davidson forever because... macy's name was too Jewish in the South (fwiw). Rich's was their competitor and now they have all merged as one company and will probably go out of business together; if Amazon buys them for storage space. 2) The old Hickory House BBQ is still in business on the Northlake site. He's the only one left. I think this could have been the original. There was a Dunwoody place that was very old and that closed in the recent past. 3) Loved Steak & amp; Ale and liked Victoria Station. The main Steak & Ale location near Northlake is just sitting there, leaving for years. Just read that the company plans to bring back the restaurant. Based from Texas, so you're not sure we'll ever see one. 4) They are all closed in the recent past. There is still a pizza place there, but I'm not sure how much it has changed. 5) Rio Vista – My father tells the story that his family never ate because grand-dad was too cheap, but they go to Rio Vista hated seeing them walk in the door because they ate more than they paid. The whole catfish is still one of his favorite foods. 7) I think Richway in Snellville has been a closet general retail store for most of Gwinnett and Walton county for a long time. 8) I bet I can stump you up: When we moved to Loganville, where's Loganville? Everyone is now a brewpub called Slice & Samp; Pint, owned by the same guy who owns 5 Seasons. However, beers in the S&P are the best of all places, and pizza is really top-notch. The last time I was there was a combo there were 8 bucks. Not just Fulton County Stadium, but a dollar ticket to bring your own beer to baseball games. He loved Aunt Fannies. Would be a howling to see the reaction to it still openWow ... some great posts mentioned above... Went to Everyone a week before they closed just to do it again... The best pizza I've ever had... More toppings fell off your pizza as you ate as many places put on pizza to begin with. Harold's BBQ is the standard by which I judged all BBQs... and had the best Brunswick stew I've ever tasted... have them and they are all close so close within a few years of each other a) caused great sadness in my life and b) probably adds 10 years to my life. The pen is on the counter from Tech... one of the Paces Ferry just isn't the same thing I remember Treasure Island as a kid... I think it was Treasure Island near us in Morrow, GA, that burned and was all that talked about for weeks. Service Merchandice – Loved there as a kid, I have to look and play with everything, but shopping there was a nightmare, it was a miracle that they lasted as long as they did, the same questions about BrandsMart today. Wasn't there also dairy De-Lite On Hwy 29 on the west side of Lawrenceville? This area is where I grew up. I remember having to go to the Lilburn K-mart for home affairs and the Northlake mall for department store stuff. I also remember as teenagers, we would go all the way to the corner of Green in Tucker for ...
